

Corporate Social Responsibility

What is Corporate Social Responsibility?

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), also commonly referred to as “sustainability”, is a doctrine and value system used to govern a business. At Levenfeld Pearlstein, our CSR program reflects our values and culture as a law firm. Our strategy is holistic and incorporates issues important to our clients, owners, employees and the community at large. This approach can be seen through our environmentally sustainable practices, our investment in our employees and our strategic philanthropic direction that is impactful rather than merely supplemental.

Our goal is to make a difference for our clients, in our community and on behalf of the individuals and organizations that are leading the way.

LP believes that doing right and doing well are inseparable.

ENVIRONMENTAL

Environmental responsibility is respect for our world and the wise management and use of natural resources.

SOCIAL

Social responsibility is respect for people around us and our community as a whole.

EMPLOYEES

Employee Responsibility is respect for the people we work with.