

Trusts & Estates Team to Represent at IICLE's 60th Annual Estate Planning Short Course

The Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (IICLE) will be hosting their 60th Annual Estate Planning Short Course. Come celebrate 60 years of premier continuing legal education for estate planning attorneys; an incomparable faculty will speak on topics including bulletproofing your estate plan, the proposed section 2704 regulations, post-mortem tax planning, minimizing fiduciary risk, key developments in guardianships, and much, much more.

May 24, 2017 (10:20 - 11:20 AM)

- Managing Partner Rob Romanoff and Trusts & Estates Partner Adam Garber will speak on Federal Income Taxation for Estate Planning & Administration

May 25, 2017 (9:55 - 10:55 AM) - Track A

- Trust & Estates Attorney Carrie Harrington to speak on Post-Divorce Bliss: Tips for Drafting the Recently Divorced Person's Estate Plan and Discussion of Issues which May exist Within the Divorce Documents.

May 25, 2017 (9:55 - 10:55 AM) - Track B

- Trust & Estates Partner Lauren Wolven to speak on Structuring Trusts and Administration to Minimize Fiduciary Risk

May 25, 2017 (2:40 - 3:40 PM) - Track A

- Trusts & Estates Partner Stuart Kohn will be speaking on Key Considerations in Planning for C Corporations, Including the Qualified Small Business Stock Exclusion

For more information, please click here.